

WHERE CAN I GET EMERGENCY FOOD IN GEELONG?

As at 16 July 2021

Below is current information regarding who, how, when and where food assistance is currently available across the Geelong region.

Due to changing conditions, restrictions and your health and safety we encourage you to call ahead before going out to access emergency food relief or to opt for contact-less delivery if available.

The Victorian State Government can provide emergency relief packages for vulnerable Victorians needing to self- quarantine due to Coronavirus (Covid-19). If you require an emergency relief package you can call the Government Coronavirus Hotline on 1800 675 398 or visit the Victorian Government Coronavirus website to learn more.
